THE COURIER.

FRIDAY, DEC. 21, 1883.

There have been three hundred miles of railroad built in Dakota this year.

All the citizens of Falk county except ten have petitioned that no liquor licenses be granted in the county.

Postoffices established in Dakota: Gates, Foster county; Odell, Barnes county; Romness, Griggs county.

The party who ties the connubial knot generally gets from $2 to $10, while the lawyers who untie it in the divorce court get from $100 to $150. This shows how much easier it is to get into trouble than it is to get out.

Connecticut has passed a law that no person shall venture out after dark with a cent of money in their possession. The cause was the killing of a man in that state a few days ago for seven dollars. The idea is to do away with temptation.

Parties who have recently returned from visits to Northern Illinois state that the farmers there are very much discouraged over their poor crops the past season, and will be out in force next spring to investigate the qualities of Dakota lands.

Mr. Blaine continues to be mentioned as a Presidential candidate, notwithstanding his repeated assertions that he is out of political life and has no aspirations. This is a polite American way of calling a man a liar, to which he never takes exceptions.

The days have passed away when a gladsome face was deemed an index of a frivolous mind, and a solemn and long drawn visage the forerunner of every virtue. We know not that virtue and happiness go hand in hand, and that a good conscience, good purposes, good habits and good health will bring with them cheerfulness and contentment to the spirit, and light and gladness to the countenance.
