Short Horn Sale

At Fargo, N. D., June 6, '05,
Will be Held the
Fourth Combination Sale of Short Horns of North Dakota Breeders.

The offering will consist of about fifty head selected from the herds of the following breeders:

Butler & Upton, Cooperstown; John Donnelly, Grafton; S. Fletcher, Matteson; and C. A. Gallup, Fairmount.

It will be the best lot of cattle ever put up for sale in North Dakota. All the cattle are either home-bred or fully acclimated. All will be guaranteed breeders and in good condition, ready for future usefullness.

The past three sales have been very successful and there are today quite a few small herds that have been started in North Dakota from foundation stock purchased at these sales in Fargo.

Look at the market quotations for live stock today and see if any farmer can afford to raise scrub stock of any kind.

The Fargo sale will be held under cover. Col. Geo. P. Bellows, of Maryville, Mo., will do the selling, and the management will try to make their patrons comfortable. Buyers can take their choice from royally bred Scotch cattle, as well bred as the best, and fit for the show ring, or plainer bred sorts that will cost less money, but still do them lots of good. Do not breed scrubs when you can make the price on the cattle you buy. For catalogues, address S. Fletcher, Matteson, N. D., or Butler & Upton, Cooperstown, N. D.

FOR SALE--Strawberry plants. Inquire at Jimeson & Olson's Store or phone F. D. Williams, phone 105 F.

Seeing and Believing.

"You don't agree, then, that 'seeing is believing?'"

"Not much! I see some people every day that I never could believe."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Absentminded.

The Groom—I can't see that check your father placed among the wedding presents. The Bride—Papa is so absentminded! He lit his cigar with it.

Our enemies are our outward consciences.—Shakespeare.

Saved By Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake night. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At H. H. Bateman's drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
