

We thought Monday a disagreeable day but not so did Charley Patterson and Ida Englestad think, as they boarded the limited for Cooperstown, to seek the services of Rev. Morrison in tying the knot which lasts until death do sever. The young couple will commence married life in Halvor Anundson's house, with the well wishes of many friends.