

MARRIAGE BELLS.

On Wednesday, August 16th, at high noon, Mr. Hans E. Svare of Pelican Rapids, Minn., and Miss Edna Glaspell of Cooperstown were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. H. Styles Harriss officiating. The wedding ceremony took place on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Glaspell, three miles north of Cooperstown. The bride was attended by her sister, Florence Sadie, the bridegroom by Mr. Fred Gimblett. An event so strange to relate is that the ritual was read out of the same book that the bride's mother was married out of 45 years ago. Receptions were held in the afternoon and evening, many of our young people from town being present and report a most enjoyable time. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Svare will make their home in Cooperstown till fall after which they purpose going to the Svare farm in Minnesota. The Courier joins the many friends of both parties in extending congratulations.
