

Wedding Bells.

Married, at high noon, on Wednesday, December 26, 1906, Mr. Andrew G. Hoel and Miss Ruth Almklov; at the home of the bride's parents in this city, Rev. J. M. Jensen of the Lutheran church officiating. The wedding was a very quiet and homelike affair, only the relatives of the contracting parties being present. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Almklov and the groom is one of Hannaford's prominent young business men. Both are popular young people and have a large circle of friends who will join with the COURIER in wishing them much happiness and prosperity. The newly wedded couple left on the afternoon train for a trip to the twin cities.
