

Alfred Langford and Miss Mary Jenkins were united in marriage at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Davis, on November 6, 1907, Rev. H. C. Kishpaugh of the Methodist church performing the ceremony, in the presence of only the immediate families of the contracting parties. The bride was gowned in white Persian mull trimmed in bands of insertion and lace edging and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The groom was attired in the conventional black. Miss Minnie Langford played the wedding march as the bridal couple took up their positions in front of the officiating clergyman. The house was prettily decorated with white roses and smilax. After the wedding ceremony and congratulations had been offered the bridal party sat down to a very fine dinner. [The groom is a son of Mr. S. B. Langford and is known as one of the progressive young farmers of the county. He has built for the reception of his bride a nice large brick house and there he and his bride have gone to house-keeping followed by the hearty good wishes of a host of friends in which it gives the Courier pleasure to join.
