

Happily Wedded.

At St. Ann's church last Monday at 8 a. m. Father Allaey's united in marriage Miss Tena O. Ressler and Mr. Daniel R. Dawson. Miss Mamie Clark and Mr. Charles Regan were the attendants. The bride's and bridesmaid's dresses were of the same beautiful light-gray cloth, the bride's dress being trimmed with gray mousseline de soie while the bridesmaids differed in soie and cream point d'esprit lace, having white mousseline de soie, with a narrow black velvet ribbon interwoven with narrow lace bands, giving a very pretty effect. The bride carried the customary bouquet of bridal roses and wore roses in her hair, Miss Clark carried pink roses. After the marriage ceremony the bridal party and guests returned to the home of Mrs. Gallagher, sister of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The table was prettily decorated with pink and white roses and carnations, with simlax interwoven. The center of the table was graced by bride's cake, which was a very pretty piece of work. Covers were laid for eighteen. Those present were: Father Allaey's, Mr. and Mrs. D. Dawson, Miss Mamie Clark, Mr. Charles Regan, Mrs. J. Dailey, Misses Copelan, Ella Strobe, Stella McCrae, Allie Greer, Towne, Marguerite Clark, the Misses Rolan, T. D. Wright, Charley Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher. The bride and groom were the recipients of some pretty wedding gifts, some being of cut glass, silverware and china, while several handsome pieces of furniture were also received. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson left for Helena on the afternoon train and were expected home yesterday. They will soon be at home to their many friends on Sixth street, between Ninth and Tenth avenue south. Mr. Dawson had the home furnished and in waiting for his bride.—Great Falls Leader.
