

Just as the ink got dry on the above item, we are told of another wedding, here it is: Married, at 8 p. m., Sunday evening March 2d, 1902, Rev. O. D. Purinton, officiating, Mr. Benjamin A. Upton, to Miss Thea Hagen, at the home of the bride's parents. The bridegroom is one of our heaviest farmers and is a very popular gentleman. His bride has been one of our school teachers for a number of years and has a host of friends. Following the ceremony which was witnessed by a large circle of friends and relatives, the company sat down to a very sumptuous wedding dinner. The newly married couple will settle down on the farm three miles east of town and will be followed by the hearty good wishes of a host of friends.
