

HOEL-ALMKLOV.

On Wednesday, Dec. 26, 1906, Andrew Hoel of this place was married to Miss Ruth Almklov of Cooperstown. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Almklov. Rev. Jensen performed the sacred ceremony.

Only relatives and a few close friends of the contracting parties were present. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Almklov and Miss Oillie Hoel and the best men were Dr. L. Almklov and Christian Reite. The young people left on the evening train for the east to spend a few weeks on a wedding trip.

Mr. Hoel is one of Hannaford's most promising young business men. He is president and general manager of the Hannaford Mercantile Co. and has taken his place with the foremost men of action in this village.

The young couple will go to house-keeping in this village as soon as they return from the east.

The large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hoel wish them a long and happy life.
