

LOGE-LUNDE.

At the home of the bride's parents in Sverdrup township a very pretty wedding took place last Saturday, Nov. 10.

The happy bride, Axliana Lunde, is the daughter of Sven Lunde, and is a very accomplished young lady with a host of friends and admirers. The groom, S. E. Loge, is a worthy young man of sterling qualities. He is the son of Erik Loge.

Rev. Josephson pronounced the words which made the happy pair husband and wife. After the ceremony a banquet and reception took place to which a large number of relatives and friends were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Loge were the recipients of many costly and beautiful gifts by which they will remember this important event in their life.

It is with the best wishes of their many friends that this bride and bridegroom enter upon lives' journey together.
