

Dr. M. D. Westley has decided to locate at Cooperstown and will open up for business about July 11. The doctor is a graduate of one of the best medical colleges in this country, has had one year's practice before coming here, and will no doubt get his share of the public business.