

At the organization of the Old Settlers Association on Jan. 13th, 1906, the president appointed a committee of six consisting of J. H. McDermott, David Bartlett, John Syverson, Knud Thompson, H. P. Hammer and Jack N. Brown, the duty of which was to make arrangements to hold a grand reunion sometime this season and to decide on details. The committee met at the office of J. H. McDermott on March 6th the matter was taken up in detail and it was the sense of the meeting that the reunion be held Friday, June 1st, 1906, on the fair grounds at Cooperstown. The entertainment to consist of several speeches from old settlers, horse races, ball game and athletic sports and good music. We would like to have a grand parade, suggestive of 20 years ago. Every old settler should lend a hand, or an ox team in harness, or a mule and cow hitched or any old rig of antiquity. Everything will be free to the members of the association even the stables for their horses. Those who are not members will be charged the small admission fee of 35c children 15c which will entitle them to all the privileges of an old settler. The committee recommend that a good fat ox be barbequed. Twenty years ago we had other use for the ox but on this occasion we will see how much of him we can eat. All will be free to join in the contest. Everyone bring their lunch baskets and we will have one grand picnic. The association will furnish the ox and coffee. We want you to have the time of your life.
