

The Weber gas engine recently purchased by the Piatt Electric Company arrived Monday and we presume that the company will immediately set it up and get it in commission as soon as possible. They need it bad enough as the present equipment has more than it can handle now. The business of the plant is growing all the time.