

Health Officer Tymms was out in the southwest part of the county Thursday and raised the quarantine on all the quarantined places with the exception of Barney Berlin's and he expects to raise the quarantine there in a few days. Up to this time no new cases have been reported and it is hoped that the spread of the disease has been stopped. While two or three cases have been serious no fatalities have resulted.