

Another Pioneer Gone.

Mrs. Isabelle Homme, wife of S. O. Homme passed quietly away in the slumber of death last Friday morning at 8 o'clock after a prolonged illness of several months.

Mrs. Homme had been failing in health for the last four years and sought medical aid in various places. In spite of the best efforts to restore her to health she finally succumbed to death through tuberculosis. She leaves husband and two children to mourn her departure.

Mrs. Homme was a quiet unpretentious woman, possessed of good judgment and intelligence. She was a faithful worker in her home as well as in the church. She bore with her husband the burden of pioneer life and experienced many hardships which are so common to early settlers. The deceased came to North Dakota with her husband 22 years ago where they settled on their present homestead, five miles east of town.

Mrs. Homme was born 45 years ago in Goodhue Co., Minn., and is the daughter of Swein Nordgarden and Torbjorg, both of whom have died within the last two years, and the fifth member of the family who have died within two years.

The remains were interred in the Sheyenne Valley Lutheran cemetery and followed by a great number of friends and relatives. Rev. E. T. Silness officiated at the house and the cemetery.
