

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Fellows, who used to be residents of Cooperstown, will regret to hear of the death of their daughter Phyliss. As near as we can find out the little girl was out on the street playing with some other girls and dropped dead. We have not learned the cause of death but would suppose that it was heart failure.