

cousin of Sam, Dave, Will and Robert Sansburn and Mrs. Herbert Langford, all of Cooperstown and vicinity. Her father, Andrew Sansburn, and one brother, John, still live in Minnesota, and her sister, Mrs. John Grant, resides near Sebeka, Minn. An uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sansburn, live at Tower City, this state.

The funeral was held on Friday, January 17, 1908, at 2:30 p. m., from the M. E. church at Cooperstown, Rev. Kishpaugh officiating, and interment was made in the Cooperstown cemetery. The church was crowded to its capacity by the old friends and neighbors of the family and there was a long line of teams which followed the remains to their last resting place.

Thus passes to peace and eternal rest a good christian woman, for at an early age Mrs. McCulloch had become a member of the Methodist church and all through her long life (lacking only eight days of sixty years) she had lived according to the precepts of her faith. The county loses one of its noblest women and the family and home all that humanity hold most sacred—the wife and mother.

The sorrowing family has the sincerest sympathy of the whole community in this deep affliction.
