Hans G. Peterson, an old time citizen of Walum, was found dead in a business place at Moorhead last Sunday morning. He had been down there for medical treatment and the cause of his sudden death is not known. He was a man about fifty years old and was formerly proprietor of the hotel at Hannaford and was a much respected citizen. He leaves a wife and five children.