

Death of Wm. B. Ford.

Wm. B. Ford, fireman on the Sanborn branch, died at Brainerd hospital at 4 o'clock Wednesday morning of appendicitis, complicated with peritonitis, aged thirty-two years nine months.

Mr. Ford was taken to Brainerd railroad hospital last Saturday where an operation was performed Sunday, but without avail.

Mr. Ford leaves a wife and two children, who are living in Binford, N. D., where they have a homestead.

He was a member in good standing of Sanborn Lodge, A. O. U. W., which provides a life insurance policy of $2,000.