

John Hughes died last Wednesday evening at about 5 p. m., at the home of William Carter in this city at the age of 71. His death was brought on by Bright's disease and inflammatory rheumatism. He came to town from his farm nine weeks ago, and had been confined to his room ever since. He was a widower, and leaves only one son who lives in Wisconsin. He owned and operated a farm west of town, and in addition had an interest in one or two other farms in this and other counties, all of which goes to the son. The funeral took place at the Carter home last Friday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. C. A. Hughes officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery.
