

A twelve-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ahlquist, early Wednesday morning. Dr. Truscott served as a committee of one on reception and reports that the whole affair was a howling success from start to finish. At last reports all concerned were doing very well.