
CALLED HOME

Erick Jacobson, residing north of town, died last Friday of catarrh of the stomach, after suffering for some time of the disease. The funeral was held from the home, on Monday, Rev. O. Swenson officiating, and interment was made at the cemetery, near Bethlehem church, where a short service was held just preceding the last sad rites. Deceased was a pioneer settler, having taken government land in 1882, upon which the family still lives. At the time of his death he was aged fifty-two years, and is survived by his wife, four daughters (two of whom are married) and two sons. The Times joins the numerous friends in sympathizing with the sorrowing family.
