

Town and vicinity.

The many friends of Mr. J. W. Maltby will be pained to hear of his death which occurred early last week, but which fact we did not learn until one week later. Deceased has been a sufferer from paralysis for several years and this we presume was the cause of his death. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery near his home north-west of town.

D. B. Vogan went to Grafton Tues.