

BOWE-GILMER.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowe of this city was the scene of a pretty home wedding at high noon Tuesday, May 8th. when their eldest daughter Gertrude was wedded to Mr. Alexander Gilmer, a popular merchant of Jamestown, N. D. Rev. Oscar D. Purinton of Cooperstown performed the marriage ceremony, which was very beautiful. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Flora and Allison Bowe, a brother of the bride served as best man. None but immediate relatives of the family were in attendance. After the ceremony, the company retired to the dining room where a delicious wedding dinner was served by the bride's mother, who had utilized her very best resources in preparing a repast that will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to partake of it, after which the happy couple departed on the afternoon train for their new home at Jamestown. The bride wore a handsome dress of cream silk and carried a bouquet of white roses, and the bridesmaid was attired in a gown of white mull. The groom and best man wore the usual black. The happy couple are very popular among their numerous acquaintances and a happy life is wished them by their friends.
