

HYMENEAL

STEVENS-MICHAELIS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Michaelis, residing near Coopers-town, was the scene of a very pretty home wedding at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Susan, was married to Mr. George F. Stevens, of Hope, N. D.

The bride is an accomplished young lady and is held in the highest estimation of those who know her, and she has a large circle of friends. The groom is a refined young gentleman of pleasant bearing, and has always held a responsible position in society and been deserving of the respect of all.

The ceremony was witnessed by only near relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, and was conducted by Rev. H. S. Harris, of Coopers-town.

The Times joins all the admiring friends in wishing for the happy young couple a liberal portion of the best the world affords, and we hope they will live long and prosper in their new departure of life.
