

Mrs. Adrian was brought home from the hospital, at Rochester, Minn., Tuesday, and her health is as yet very poorly. It is reported that she is suffering from cancer of the stomach, and that her case is therefore incurable. We are very sorry to learn of this discouraging state of affairs, and deeply sympathize with the unfortunate woman and family.