

Word was received here yesterday morning to the effect that the home of W. A. Amos and family south of town had burned Monday night. They saved nothing. Origin of fire unknown at this time. A subscription list was circulated as a means of raising some money with which to assist the unfortunate family, and it met with the approval of nearly all who were approached.