

derrful what 9, 10 and 10c will buy.

Shirley Badcock, who has been engaged at the Pioneer Meat Market, during the past several weeks, received a message Friday stating that his mother was dangerously ill at her home in Jackson, Mich. and summoning him at once. He departed on the afternoon train, and we understand that he is not apt to return for the reason that he expects to work in the shop of his father in Jackson.