

Dick Howden of McHenry was in town Monday evening and attended band practice to hear the boys play. While there Conductor Brodsbaug got him interested in our extra tuba and he assisted very ably during the rendition of several selections. He departed the same evening for the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hemerline where he made a short visit, returning here Tuesday and thence back to McHenry.

Music Department in town Tuesday