At the Binford base ball park you will now see one of the swellest grand stands in North Dakota. Nearly all the carpenters and other able-bodied men (and that's all of us) turned in on Monday morning and went after the matter in earnest, and by Tuesday night the stand was ready for business, - xcept that there was not time enough to get a roof on. Hereafter, when you want to come to Binford to see a ball game you will not be compelled to bring along a grand stand.
