

Those at Cooperstown having had charge of Binford's silver cup for the past eleven months, have decided to uncover it and bring it out from its place of concealment in time for the fair in July. The cup will be offered as a premium for the winning ball team again this year as before. All we can say now is that we hope the winning team will get it.

E. S. Waggoner has sold his pro-