

The First National Bank building has been delayed because of a lack of material. As soon as the material can be made and gotten in readiness this building will be pushed with energy. Our town is building up in excellent style this season the same as before.