

O. S. Gunderson & Co. have purchased the old store building from Halvorson-Hammer & Alfson Bros., and have this week had an arch cut through the walls, thereby connecting the building with their other store. We understand the new building will be used as a furniture department. The store now presents a nice appearance and will greatly accommodate the firm in carrying on their business.