

Some of the business changes of which we made mention in a recent issue, have terminated as follows: Messrs Halvorson and Hammer have purchased an interest in the hardware and implement business of Alfson Bros. & Lewis, Mr. Lewis retiring; Peter Idsvoog of Cooperstown has purchased an interest in the general store of O. S. Gunderson & Co., and Mr. Rorvig, formerly a member of the firm retires; Henry Alfson has sold his meat market to F. G. Lewis and the firm of Knapp & Buchheit has been changed by Mrs. Knapp selling out her interest in the business to Messrs Ole Bakken and John Knapp, and O. S. Quam has sold his blacksmith business to K. G. Flaagan.
