

Cement walks are now laid around the new store of Halverson-Hammer & Alfson Bros. and in front of the Phenix Pharmacy. The walks are ten feet wide with a curb twenty inches high. This makes a good walk and is a great improvement to the looks of the street. Preparations are being made for considerable cement walk on the east side of the street, and it will not be long before we will have one of the swellest looking little towns in the country.