Messrs Ward and Probistfield have purchased the West Hotel of H. M. Hanson, and will convert the same into a jodging house. A fair portion of the building will be used for living - rooms and the office part is to be utid lized for a land office.