

fully recovered.

The fire department has for some time had under consideration the erection of a fire house for the engine and other apparatus belonging to the department, and the building is now under way of construction. One by one Binford is getting the many things necessary to insure its complete success along all lines. ●

In our last issue we failed to an-