

spot the books of them.

Binford organized a fire department Friday night and the boys are now ready for action and hoping they will never be called upon to fight a fire. F. G. Lewis was elected chief, Geo-Lockett, assistant chief, P. J. Simonson, secretary and John Knapp, Treasurer. There was also a finance committee of three members appointed, which is composed of August Evers, Martious Norswing and T. K. Curry.

The thought that "no one cares