

The church is rapidly nearing completion at least for the present, and it will probably be in readiness for use in about a month. The dedication will in all probability be deferred until next summer. When the building is completed according to plans it will be a handsome structure and a great credit to the town.

Winter's advance agent came from