

Dr. Truscott is building a neat office between the Schindler property and the telephone office on the east side of Whinnery Street. The doctor has always had his office at his residence before, but his practice is growing with the town and he now deems it advisable to have his office downtown. And then it makes another building, which is an important matter to be considered.

W. Wallace of Haverford was in