

The towus along this branch are now enjoying passenger service, the passenger having been put on and making its first trip on Monday of this week. The time card has been changed so that the passenger is now due in Binford at 11:08 a. m. west bound, and at 1:55 p. m. east bound. Our readers will please bear in mind the change in the time card, that they may be able to reach all trains in good season.
