

The telephone line is being extended from here to the country in the vicinity of Bue, and the linemen are out now erecting poles and in other ways preparing to complete the line.