

Frank Bowe Is Home

George Bowe departed Monday for Fargo to bring his son Frank home from the hospital. Frank has been steadily improving for some time past, and Mr. Bowe received word the first of the week that it was safe to bring Frank home. They returned yesterday, and everybody is glad to see Frank back again and to know that he has recovered from his horrible accident. It will be remembered that Frank Bowe was seriously injured by being wound around a shaft at the elevator he was running at Cooperstown, early this fall, and for a long time his recovery was a matter of grave doubt. However, by having the best of care he has recovered from the accident, and the entire family is to be congratulated for the happy outcome of this seeming unjust visitation of calamity. This is indeed an occasion for great thanksgiving.
