

Howard Burns departed Tuesday for Fargo to consult Dr. Darrow regarding a little bunch on his side which he says he has no use for and is not prepared to say where it came from. He will not undergo an operation this time, but may some time later. It is nothing serious at present and he expects to return today.

M. A. Hagle made a trip out to his