

Miss Margaret Callaghan, who was expected to arrive Saturday to teach our school, was unable to come at that time, so her sister, Miss Mary, who is also a well qualified teacher, came in her stead. School began Monday morning as stated in our last issue and a good attendance was enrolled for the term. After a while when the work is done on the farms there will doubtless be a larger attendance as some of the older boys will be able to attend.