

bered by the boys.

F. D. Cannon has received the moulds for making concrete building blocks, and is now busily engaged in turning out some very good specimens of the product, of which he expects to construct a house this fall. At present this material is practically an experiment in this section, but Fred is determined to try it so we will all watch developments. If it proves substantial, he will have a good house as well as an attractive one.

---