

A strange thing happened during the rain storm the first of the week in Dickinson. Wm. N. Christ was shearing and had sixteen sheep in the pen. A bolt of lightning struck the pen and killed all the sheep and warped the shears in Christ's hands. He was knocked down but soon came to, and is apparently all right.—Forum.