

Samuel Cummings arrived in town Tuesday from Valley City. Mr. Cummings is doing expert work for the Deering division of the International Harvester Works, and will remain here for several days. When we first knew Sam he was a small boy, but he is now a large man and we are glad to see him working his way up in the world. His home is at Finley.