

ting enjoyment, give us the log.

Mrs. Martha Dahlin is reported as being in very poor health, and it is said that she has been compelled to remain in her chamber continuously for some time. On account of her advanced years she will doubtless require a great deal of time to improve sufficiently to permit her to get up and around. She is at the home of her daughter Mrs. O. S. Gunderson with whom she makes her home.

The announcement of Mason Knapp