

T. D. Davis, who resides about 12 miles south of this place, was in town Monday for the first time in his life. Now that sounds like enough, doesn't it, but it is a fact that he was never in this town before, altho. he has wanted to be for a long time, but it never happened to be his good fortune to get here until Monday. He felt repaid for coming in the fact that he was well pleased with the town, and says that he will come more frequently hereafter. Mr. Davis used to board with Landlord Maurer when they were both at Cooperstown and the latter was running a hotel at that place, and altho he is not a type of Maurer's fat man in the ad., yet he held his own. Mr. Davis drives nice horses, and we hope he will decide to make Binford his objective point quite regularly.
